THE NEW AND RICH BLACK DRESS FABRICS

For Spring Costumes, Gowns, Suits, Coats, and Wraps in the Most Complete Variety of Weaves.

Rough and smooth weaves and surfaces-fabrics capable of every fashionable treatment in the numberless styles of garments that will mark the individuality of women.

For dressy wear—the soft materials will again be the principal factor, and Poplin and Faille will continue to hold a prominent place. Wool, Silk-and-wool Crepe, San Toy and Scintella are other weaves of much fashion; Broche and Moire effects will be important features. We are now showing the bulk of our importations and selections, and in them you will see the choicest work that the weavers of this and other countries have ever accomplished.

Distinguished Gathering at Ceremony in Which Bishop Harding Officiates.

SCORES DR. ELIOT'S CREED

The corpersione of the new Protestan at Connecticut and Cathedral avenue northwest, was laid yesterday afternoon by Bishop Harding, with impressive cere monies, which were witnessed by the congregation, in which the diplomatic corps and official and fashionable society are well represented. Rev. Dr. Randolph H. McKim, recto of the Church of the Epiphany, delivered the sermon, taking occasion to comment caustically on the "twentieth century Christianity," propounded recently by Dr. Ellott, president emeritus of Harvard, in which the noted educator and philosopher said that the word "God" should be stricken from the religious lexicon of the present age.

be stricken from the religious lexicon of the present age.

The services proper were held in the chapel, those in the chancel being Bishop Harding, Rev. Dr. J. Macbride Sterrett, rector of All Souls'; Rev. Dr. McKim, Rev. Dr. Herbert Scott Smith, rector of St. Margaret's; Rev. Dr. Charles T. Warner, rector of St. Albans'; Rev. Dr. George Williamson Smith, rector of St. John's, and Rev. T. A. Johnstone, assist-

The procession to the church for the ceremony was formed of Bishop Harding, the elergy and the congregation.

Frederick A. Kendal, senior warden of the church, read the articles to be placed in the recess of the cornerstone, and the Fishop Harding laid the stone, using the ritual prepared especially for the occa-sisted Bishop Harding in the cornerstone laying.

Dr. McKim, commenting on the "twentieth century Christianity" of Dr. Eliot. said he was "not surprised that one who did not believe in the atonement and divinity of Christ should feel that we need a new religion, for evidently his religion was quite insufficient to supply the needs of the human heart."

The subject of his sermon was the "Stewardship of the Christian Congrega-tion as Related to the Holy Scriptures, the Holy Sacraments and the Christian Faith" as embodied in the Christian creed. He urged his hearers to fulfill that stewardship.
